

Tech Talk Tuesday

February, 2023

OrCam MyEye

The all too popular OrCam MyEye Pro wields many helpful features for those with visual impairments. The ability to read text, recognize colors, recognize currency, identify doors tables and chairs; all of which are extremely helpful and available at the touch of a button. Call the society to get a live demonstration of the OrCam MyEye. Don't take our word for it, see it for yourself.

Society discounts available

Call Now

Financial Assistance for Test Devices

The Missouri Council of the Blind will cover up to 50% of the cost of devices for eligible members through their adaptive technology program. For more information on this program, visit the link below.

MCB Adaptive Technology Program

IrisVision Inspire

If handheld magnifiers have become too much of a hassle, maybe hands-free magnification is your next option. These IrisVision Inspire glasses allow you to magnify everything you see.

Contact the society to test out this device.

Society discounts available

RealSam Pocket Phone

Now available for eligible parties through the Tap-telephone program, the RealSAM Pocket takes away the stress of figuring out complicated phone interfaces, as It enables you to communicate by phone or text, stream content and supports independence with handy assistance tools, all by just using your voice.

Learn More About RealSam Pocket

Donate Now

Find helpful technology tips for common devices here:

Technology Tips & Tutorials

Connect with us

Saint Louis Society for the Blind and Visually Impaired | 8770 Manchester Rd, St. Louis, MO
63144